These are the Delicious Foods of Shingu!

Sanma-zushi (Pacific Saury Sushi)

Sanma-ZuShi (Pacific Saury Sushi)
Sanma (Pacific saury) travels in a cold current from the Sanriku coast southward along the Kumano-nada Sea. The fishes'bodies become firmed up when they get to the Kumano coast in winter because they swim in the cold water for a long time. The local people treasure sanma and cook sanma-zushi for New Year's celebratione. It represents Kumano local quicing tions. It represents Kumano local cuisine

Nare-zushi (Fermented Sushi) Nare-zushi is a traditional, preserved food in this region. It is fermented without adding vinegar, and offers a unique taste. Apu (sweetfish) and sanma (Pacific saury) are commonly used. It pleases gourmet food lovers.

Mehari-zushi

(Sushi Rolled with Mustard Leaf) A big rice ball wrapped with a large mustard leaf, mehari-zushi makes your eyes open wide when you open your mouth. That is how it got its name, mehari (eyes open wide). Its simple and natural taste represents Shingu's local food.
